

Defence In Depth Conference

6th and 7th October 2009 at Sellafield Centre
Human Performance & Learning join forces with Disciplined Operations, to help you understand 'Defence In Depth' and how operations can strengthen these defences

Come along to our interactive conference open throughout the day 9am - 4.30pm.
Browse the display's from all areas across the Sellafield site, including your own area! Learn from other areas.
Learn by engaging in our innovative interactive games.
Come and see what is new since the Human Performance Conference in 2007.
Open to all on site to attend, just obtain clearance from your line manager.

Key speaker presentations in the afternoon of each day including; Shane Bush Professor of Behavioural Sciences at Idaho University, Mike Johnson and Andy Hurley on Disciplined Operations, Joe McCluskey on Human Performance and Peer to Peer Observation. These are open to everyone on a first come first served basis.

For more information and to reserve a place for the presentations contact Emma L James 76380